

I have known Maxine Clark as her pets' Veterinary Surgeon for over 10 years.

Having worked in a Veterinary Surgery in London for many years , Max has a wealth of knowledge about looking after and caring for animals, both healthy and sick.

More important though, is her empathy for pets and their owners. Max is one of the kindest owners I have met in my 35 years as a vet. Her nursing of her own pets has been exceptional and her own dog, Bambi, would not be alive today without her expert care.

I cannot recommend her highly enough to look after anybody's pets. I would happily entrust the care of my animals to her.
